WAILUKU, MAUI, H. T., SATURDAY, AUGUST 28, 1909

NUMBER 28

With Police And Judge

Kahakuloa's Lochinvar keeps the Police Busy.

Lieut. Ferreira of the Wailuku police force with the assistance of informers went to Waihee the early part of this week and gathered in an assortment of Chinese and Korean gamblers, nineteen in all. The largest number of offenders gathered in by a single policeman this year. The parties were up before Judge McKay Wednesday forenoon for a hearing, and were convicted of the offense as charged. Sixteen of them were fined $4.00 apiece, and three, one an old offender, the other two were acting as bankers, were sentenced to pay a fine of $15.00 each. The latter three noted an appeal, the sixteen paid the fines levied against them for the benefit of the Treasury of the County of Maui.

Several Chinese laundrymen recently refused to take out a license for conducting their business, and were arrested by the police. They are being prosecuted under Act 13 of 1907, and they have retained Messrs. Kekoikai and Crockett as their attorneys. At the preliminary hearing last Tuesday the attorneys for the defense stated their contention to be that, "since our worthy legislators in their wisdom failed to provide a penalty for not getting out a laundry license no offense is committed, and furthermore the defendants have declared their intention of carrying the case to the upper courts on constitutional grounds in case the lower court rules against their contention. Pleas were reserved and the hearing set for September 1st next. It is hoped the Sheriff will not find it necessary to pounce on the laundries and to seize and sequester the clothing there laundered for evidence of unlicensed washing that is going on.

Lohé Moemoe and Maleka Kia were up before Judge McKay Tuesday morning for the offense of liking each other too well but unwisely and Lohé Moemoe was fined $50.00, Maleka Kia, $30.00. Behind these bare findings of facts lie a bit of romance as interesting as the legend of Lochinvar with the bride of the Netherby-castle.

It seems the fair Maleka formerly of Kahakuloa, for sundry reasons, had been induced to accept the advances of Kia. Tuesday last week they were duly married and retired to the home of the successful bridegroom on the breezy hill-sides of Puuhala, Wailuku, to enjoy the sweets of a mid-summer honey moon.

The Saturday following like the bold Lochinvar of old, Lohé Moemoe, the sleepy listener, came down from the hills of Kahakuloa leading a mule, and boldly sought the castle of his rival, and with "one touch to her hand and one word to her ear" whilst the charger (a good practical mule) "stood near," repeated the triumph of Lochinvar.

The discomfited bridegroom however dangled not "his bonnet and plume" but summoned the minions of law to his aid, and armed with a warrant of arrest spent nearly the whole of Monday night going "over bank, bush and scur" among the hills and valleys of Kahakuloa, with the police in place of "Fenwicks and Musgraves" doing the "racing and chasing on Cannobie lee" and incidentally blessing him in an aside for the

Jap Fans Interested

Asahi Baseball Team to Play on Maui.

It has been proven time and again in the past few years that the Japanese in this Territory have become lovers of the great American national game of baseball and that fact is again demonstrated by the Japanese enthusiasts of Central Maui.

By today's Claudine the Asahi baseball team, composed entirely of Japanese students in the Honganji High-School of Honolulu, will arrive and will play a series of games here.

They are scheduled to play this afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Kahului baseball park and will meet a nine composed of local Japanese players, captained by Suzuki, otherwise known as Wm. McGerrow of Puunene.

Tomorrow morning the same teams will meet at Wells Park, Wailuku, at 10 o'clock and in the afternoon at 3:30 o'clock the Asahis will play the last game of the series with a team composed of Maui junior ball players.

The general admission to these games will be 25 cents and an additional charge of 25 cents will be made for grand stand seats.

The local Japanese are taking great interest in these games and will turn out en masse. Their patriotic spirit combined with the enthusiasm they have taken in the game is such that the price of admission will not be considered by them. There will, it is expected, be a large attendance of fans of other nationalities who will want to see the class of ball put up by the "sons of the Rising Sun."

The Asahi baseball team is now playing in the Junior Oahu League and has made an excellent showing. In fact they are the leaders in their class, and are expected to surprise a great many of the local fans.

Dr. Oyama, who is one of the leading Japanese baseball fans on Maui, will manage the local Japanese team's, and is doing everything possible for the success of the meet. He it was who took the initiative in bringing the team up from Honolulu, and hopes in the near future to have a Japanese team come here and compete with the All-Maui team.

The Doctor's work in promoting higher class of ball among the Japanese fans here is commendable and should receive the support of all local fans.

neck breaking job of climbing and descending steep trails in the starry moonless summer night.

A little before day break the eloping pair were found in a little grass house on the sea beach, under the shadow of the great cliffs that wall the valley roundabout Kahakuloa, and were brought before Judge McKay with the result above noted. Kia offered to pay Maleka's fine but the fair one flouts the idea, preferring to languish in jail with her lover to a return to Kia and his company.

Deputy Sheriff Devauchelle of Molokai reported having pulled in a batch of fifteen gamblers early this week, and should the defendants put up a fight, the County Attorney's office will have to send over some one to prosecute them before the Judge Conradt.

Committee Makes Plans

Chooses Special Representative to Accompany Party.

The executive of the Maui General Committee for the reception of visiting Congressmen met in the Wailuku Town Hall Thursday evening last.

The representatives present were Wm. F. Pogue, H. B. Penhallow, Wm. Scarby, L. Weinsheimer, A. N. Hayselden, Hon. R. J. K. Nawahine and Chas. Wilcox.

The committee voted to have Mr. Worth O. Aiken go to Hawaii with the party as Maui's special representative, Mr. Aiken to advise the Maui Committee of how many of the party wanted to take the overland trip from Nahiku to Makawao, how many for Haleakala, the pineapple district, the winery at Kaupakalua and Iao Valley, and in that way avoid all misunderstanding and delays.

It was voted to ask $1,000.00 for the expenses of the Maui trip. Hanna wanted $200.00 but may have to get along with $50.00, the expense for auto hire was estimated at $800 but by close work may be covered with $600.

A sub-committee on finances and transportation was appointed consisting of L. von Tempisky, W. F. Pogue, H. P. Baldwin, J. N. S. Williams and H. B. Penhallow.

The matter of providing the party with sleeping accommodations was left to a committee consisting of the chairmen of the Makawao, Kahului and Wailuku Committees.

It was estimated about fourteen autos will be available for the use of the party while in Central Maui, the Haleakala ranch will furnish thirty and the Paia ranches thirty-five saddle horses for those who love horseback riding, and desire to make the trip to the top of Haleakala mountain.

Lahaina Jottings

Happenings In And Around the Ancient Capital.

Father Powell of Boston has sent to the church of Holy Innocents a set of beautiful altar ornaments, coverings, and other gifts. They were blessed by the Rev. Leopold Kroll last Sunday morning. Henry Hose, the crucifer, wore his scarlet cassock for the first time last Sunday. Canon Ault preached in the evening.

The Rev. Mr. Santos of Paia preached to the Portuguese of Kaunapali last Sunday and in the evening assisted in the services conducted by the Rev. C. G. Burnham of Lahaina.

Miss Kilino, a teacher of Kawaihae Seminary is a guest of Mrs. Burt.

Mr. L. M. Baldwin and family of Wailuku are staying at the Baldwin house. The boys are enjoying swimming very much.

Canon Ault and family are living in the Hayselden beach house. This place is almost ideal for warm weather.

Ani, who for years was head poi man of Lahaina, went with his family a year ago to China to live. They have returned and are now in Honolulu. Ani was in Lahaina the other day.

Work On Pipe Line

Government Awards Con- tracts for Kula Pipe.

Contracts for piping for the Kula pipe line have been awarded by the Superintendent of Public Works to the Honolulu Iron Works Company. The aggregate of the bid was $39,091.28, and the piping to be furnished consists of 20,000 feet of six inch, 33,000 feet of five inch, 20,000 feet of four inch, 10,000 feet of three inch, and 15,000 feet of one and one-half inch pipes. A total of 98,000 feet of piping.

Since the first estimate was made on which the appropriation was based, the market price for piping has dropped thirty-five per cent, which has enabled the Superintendent of Public Works to plan for increasing the capacity of the pipe line to four times that of the original estimates. The line will extend from Olinda to Kamaio South of Ulupalakua, and is the cheapest pipe contract of its size let by the Government of Hawaii.

It is planned to put in about 13,000 feet of wooden piping, from twelve to fourteen inches in diameter for the line from the intake of the system at the head of Honomau or Puohokamoa valley to the reservoirs at Olinda. The idea being to provide for a greater supply than what is needed for the Kula section of the line only, with the intention of adding to the system at a later date, a pipe line for supplying Makawao and Paia with pure mountain water.

Mr. Harvey the civil engineer in charge of the work is to come up today to make the final location.

The material contracted for is to be delivered by January next, when the actual work of laying the pipes will begin.

To Hon. E. B. Carley of Paia is due much of the credit for pushing the measure through the legislature, a credit he shares however with the Maui senators, representatives, politicians and capitalists who readily and willingly put their shoulders to the wheel at the critical moment, and brought the matter of the appropriation to a successful issue.

The Home Team Loses the Cricket Match.

The cricket match between the visiting Honolulu teams and the home team at Kahului park last Wednesday ended in a decided victory for the visitors. After watching the game until the visitors had scored more than one hundred runs, whilst the home team had very much less than a half a hundred the Maui News reporter left in a very unportsmanlike mood. He was prepared to shout for the home team but the conditions were against making the enthusiastic demonstration desired, and he did not know enough of the game to see an opening for boosting the home team. However the visitors couldn't have won if they hadn't been such good fellows.

Mrs. MacDonald, editor of Hawaii's Young People, is visiting in Honolulu. When she returns she will be pleasantly surprised to find her cottage enlarged and improved so much that it is now one of the finest cottages on Maui. The work has been done by Mr. MacDonald and the teachers. The location is charming.
